The image displays the 12 chromatic scale degrees in musical notation. Each degree is represented by a pair of staves (treble and bass clef) showing the note and its fingering. The degrees are labeled as follows:

- A# Bb: Treble clef has A# (finger 1), Bass clef has Bb (finger 1).
- B Cb: Treble clef has B (finger 1), Bass clef has Cb (finger 1).
- B# C: Treble clef has B# (finger 1), Bass clef has C (finger 1).
- C# Db: Treble clef has C# (finger 1), Bass clef has Db (finger 1).
- D: Treble clef has D (finger 1), Bass clef has D (finger 1).
- D# Eb: Treble clef has D# (finger 1), Bass clef has Eb (finger 1).
- E Fb: Treble clef has E (finger 1), Bass clef has Fb (finger 1).
- E# F: Treble clef has E# (finger 1), Bass clef has F (finger 1).

Each degree also includes a diagram showing the fingerings for the notes on the staves, with 'or' indicating alternative fingerings.
